HEARING EXAMINER'S RULING

October 2, 2001

By Hearing Examiner's Ruling entered on September 12, 2001, the evidentiary hearing scheduled herein for September 13, 2001, was postponed until further ruling by the Examiner.

On September 24, 2001, the Commission Staff filed a Motion to Reschedule Hearing. In the Motion, Staff counsel states that counsel for the parties have agreed to recommend rescheduling the evidentiary hearing for Thursday, December 6, 2001, in Richmond, Virginia, and reserving Friday, December 7, for hearing, if necessary. Counsel for the parties further recommend that statements from additional public witnesses be taken before the presentation of the parties' evidence.

Good cause having been shown, I find the Motion to Reschedule Hearing should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS DIRECTED:

(1) That the evidentiary hearing previously scheduled herein is rescheduled for 10:00 a.m., on Thursday, December 6, 2001, in the Commission's Second Floor Courtroom, Tyler Building, 1300 East Main Street, Richmond, Virginia; and

(2) That any person desiring to make a statement as a public witness or respondent should arrive 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the hearing and check-in with the Commission's Bailiff.
